Wont you open them once more?
Your face is starting to look sleepy
Why are you not saying anything?
Though you're not all alone...
If I paid attention to "your" screams
Could we return once again to that time?
Yes, if everything were just a dream
Then hurry and wake up right away...
Is the pouring rain,
Falling down to wash everything away?
If I paid attention to "your" screams
If I paid attention to "your" screams
A requiem to "you" my dear
"I hope it reached you..."
