"Black Eyed Susan"

Every time I'm around, you make me feel so uneasy
When I know that you're down, you, you look at me so deceiving
Every time I'm around

Every time you say, it ain't nothing ain't nothing

Tears you cant hide, telling me a different story
Cant hold it inside, ain't no use in saying sorry
You're livin a lie

Every time you say, you're worth nothing, yeah nothing
You better turn it around

Black eyed Susan, all the tears are so confusing
Black eyed Susan, find the lord or keep on losing
Black eyed Susan

Lead:
Every time you say you're worth nothing, yeah nothing
There's a price to pay and it's something, yeah something
When You're flat on the ground with no loving, no loving
You gotta turn it around

Black eyed Susan, all the tears are so confusing
Black eyed Susan, find the lord or keep on losing
Black eyed Susan, take a chance you cant refuse it
Black eyed Susan

Black eyed Susan, masquerade, it's the tears you cry
like rain today
It's the games you play that lead to your demise Deception is the role you play, and the tears fall down
like rain today
It's the price you play, when the truth destroys your lies
