[VERSE 1]

Every single night
As I walk alone
Down the empty streets
That I call my own

The rain is falling lightly
Resting on my head
The streets are cold and empty
The city lights are dead

A thunder clap is heard
In the brooding sky
The lightning flashes past
Lighting up my eyes

I see the broken skyline
Calling me to play
A savage voice is singing
I can't turn away

Through the empty building
To the hollow sound
Echoes in the darkness
Screaming all around

Lingering temptation
Followed close by death
I know your coming nearer
I can feel your breath
[END VERSE 1]

Save Me!

[CHORUS]

Running through the darkness
In an empty room
Running through the shadows
Of my living tomb

The lights are fading faster
Falling into ash

The PHANTOMS are returning
Screaming from my past

The thunder clap is passing
Crumbling away
With the sudden silence
I see the light of day
[END CHORUS]

[VERSE 2]
The light of dawn is coming
Rising in the morn
Giving me a shelter
From this voice of scorn

As the doors they open
I run into the day
The voice of shadow follows
It will not go away

The night of storm is chasing
Running at my heels
I try to awaken
This can not be real

Screaming at the shadows
Make this nightmare stop
I run out of the building
As the rain begins to drop

Finally it is over
Finally I am free
I am in the sunlight
The voice can't follow me

I still hear the whisper
Calling me to play
I will not be taken
So I turn away
[END VERSE 2]

[LAST STANZA OF CHORUS] 2x
