I went to san Diego to see Penny Griego I was tryin to get my life back together I bought some baking soda for my frige in Minnesota I was trying to get my life back together spent a lot of time lookin for love. I was like Mickey Gilly spent a lot of time looking for love True love is straight up above. I saw Yvonne DeCarlo at a bus stop in Fargo, North Dakota saw Abe Vigoda at the ear piercing pagota in the Westminister Mall. Spent a lot of time looking for love, I was like Debra Winger, spent a lot of time looking for love. True love was straight up above. Saw Gomer Pyle when I worked in Fashion Isle as an insecurity guard but I saw none of theese people in a churh with a steeple but that's where I found the biggest star spent a lot of time looking for love. True love was straight up above.
