(about 90% of the lyrics here are correct)

Meet me in Johannesburg.
Me and the whole wide world.
Come by sea, come by land, come by air
come hand in hand

We're celebrating, the start of a brand new thing
North Africa
West Africa
Central Africa
East Africa
South Africa

Oh beautiful African Land,
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land

We're all the same, breakdown mental chains
Now and forever let freedom reign
I justice and peace we can believe
People are you ready?
Let's celebrate a new day!

Here in Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land

I'm coming home, I'm coming home. Jah!
En Sengalla girl on one corner, it be Eitrea to Angola, Ethiopia to South Africa, this is the land of our forefathers
Land of the (unknown)
Place is the birth of the ancestor
From Congo unto Nigeria
Lift up your voice and shout "Africa"!

In unity we will achieve here we stand on victory street
One goal, one aim, one destiny
People are you ready???
Let's celebrate a new day!

African chant (unkown lyrics so far)

Meet "I" in Capetown
There's people from all around Come by sea, come by land, come by air, come hand in hand

We're celebrating, the start of a brand new thing
North Africa
West Africa
Central Africa
East Africa
South Africa

Oh beautiful Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land
Africa Land etc

En Sengalla girl on one corner, it be Eitrea to Angola, Ethiopia to South Africa, this is the land of our
forefathers
Land of the (unknown)
Place is the birth of the ancestor
From Congo unto Nigeria
Lift up your voice and shout "Africa"!
