Everybody's worried about time
But i just keep that shit off my mind
People living on twenty-four hour clocks
But we're on a ride that never stops

Hey Mr. Bee, the world change, but you remain the same
And I wonder how you'll survive with the environment going down the drain Hey Miss Dragonfly, I see you look at me with your beautiful eyes
You must be wondering, what type of creature am I?

A dog looked at me and said, "Ziggy, why can't we trust man?"
Puss and me get together [so] why can't you all just understand
An old tree stood there silently listening to every word we said
As a tear fell, he cried, "What type of creature is man?"

I said, "Hey Mr. Tree, the world change but you remain the same
And I wonder how you survive with the environment
going down the drain?"
Hey Miss Butterfly, I see you look at me with your beautiful eyes
You must be wondering what type of creature am I?
You must be wondering what type of creature am I?

Everybody's worried about time
But I just keep that shit off my mind
People living on twenty-four hour clocks
But we're on a ride
Yes we're on a ride
We're on a ride that never stops

Hey Mr. Bee, the world change, but you remain the same
And I hope you'll survive with the environment going down the drain

beautiful eyes
