Haunting memories won't leave me alone
Haunting memories won't leave me alone

I remember you, what you did to me, I remember
October November, I remember what you did to me
Hot night in summer, I'll never forget the time in June, I remember
Love we had, why make it look so bad, I remember

I remember the place, I remember your face
I remember it oh so well, I remember
I remember your touch, I remember how much
I remember how you felt

All the good times were not for waste
And we were never in any haste
We grew to know each other well, so well
Our lives a story to tell

I remember you, what I did to you, do you remember?
October November, I remember what I did to you
Hot night in summer, I'll never forget the time in June
Do you remember?
Love we had, why make it look so bad, I remember

I remember the place, I remember your face
I remember it, oh so well, I remember
I remember your touch, I remember how much
I remember how you felt, I remember

I remember you, I remember we
And the way you used to be, I remember
I remember how, I remember where
That you'll remember now, I remember

I remember you, what you did to me
October November, I remember what you did to me
Hot night in summer, I'll never forget the time in June, I
remember
Love we had, why make it look so bad, I remember

I remember the place, I remember your face

I remember it, oh so well, I remember
I remember your touch, I remember how much
I remember how you felt, I remember

I remember you, I remember we
And the way you used to be, I remember
I remember how, I remember where
That you'll remember now, I remember

I remember the place, I remember your face
I remember it, oh so well, I remember
I remember your touch, I remember how much
I remember how you felt, I remember

I remember you, I remember we
And the way you used to be, I remember
I remember how, I remember where
That you'll remember now, I remember
