Well, I know there is Jah out there to be found Yes, I know there is Jah out there to be found They claim to be who they aren't
What they seem to have found See they claim to be who they aren't
What they seem to have found

Falsely proclaimed, popes and priests
They claim they are the closet to God But who are you, and how can you be How can you be who you aren't?

All they do is talk
yes, all they do is talk Dem chatty mouth a bark Well all they do is talk

Woman, I know there is Jah out there to be found Yes, my people I know we is Rasta all around Now they think they know little of everything
But they don't know fart
Some intellectuals think they know a little of everything
But they don't know naught, naught

Hey, it's not what's on the outside my brethren It's what's in the heart
And the real you is inside of you my sistren You know who you really are

All they do is talk
Yes, all they do is talk
That's all they do is talk Watch them chatty mouth a bark

Blessed be Jah my rock who teaches my hands to wage war and my fingers to do the battle.
My love, my fortress, my strong hold, my deliverer, my shield in whom I've taken refuge and the one who subdues my people under me.
Oh Jah, what is man? Man is breath, his days are like passing shadow.

Oh, Lord, bow down thy heavens and descend, touch the mountains so that they smoke, flash forth the lightning and strike them, shoot forth thy arrows and confound them.

I know there is revolution brewing, I can see People, I know there is a solution in you and me Now they think they can fool all the people
But they can't and they ain't Yes, they think they can fool all the people
But they ain't cause they can't

Falsely proclaimed leaders
They claim they're the leaders of men
But what is this, who are you?
And how can you be, how can you be Who you ain't?

All they do is talk
Yes, all they do is talk Promise you this, promise you that chat behind the innocent back (repeat)
Them chatty mouth a bark
Yes all they do is talk
Them chatty mouth a bark
And all they do is talk Promise you this, promise you that
chat behind the innocent back (repeat)

All they do is talk, them chatty mouth a bark (repeat 3 times)

Them chatty mouth a bark and them can't defend them talk
