When will the blind see? When will the deaf hear?
Why should the babe shed so many tear drops?
And the wicked man not even a sigh
And those wicked men not even a sigh

'Cause we're living in a world so corrupt
We are living in a world so corrupt
Living in a world so corrupt
We are living in a world so corrupt

Lies they sell cheaper than bread
What they do? Starve the people of the truth
Secretly the system programme the pain
In disguise of every day life problems
In disguise of every day life problems

We are living in a world so corrupt
We are living in a world so corrupt
Yeah I'm living in this world so corrupt
You are living in a world so corrupt

There is a way which seems so right to men
But it end leadeth to destruction
Even in gladness the heart weeps
And the end of joy is grief, the end of joy is grief

Don't lose your way, find it today
And don't drop the speed the, people in need
Don't lose your way, find it today
I don't drop my speed, the people in need

We're living in a world, living in a world, living in a world
Mama you got me here I've got to change it
And living in a world, living in a world, living in a world
Oh daddy, oh daddy, I remember you told me

We're living in a world, living in a world, living in a
That's so corrupt now, that's so corrupt now
Living in a world so corrupt, got to be tough
Got to be rough, got to be tough, got to be rough now

Living in a world so corrupt
