Dear one

I hope you are somewhere, where you are save
Where you feel protected, where you can find peace
I want to let you know that I miss you
Because I think you forgot that of me
Since I met you, I have loved you from the start
And after 3 years, I feel greater love for you
I am sorry about what I did
I never should have done that

But that helped us see some of the things
That we wouldn't have been able to otherwise
I am not saying I'm glad I did it
But at least I am back
To try to win your heart again

Truth is, I couldn't sleep all those nights
I always thought of you before falling asleep
Wishing you were there

I don't know how our lives will turn out, you know
You have changed so much since then
And I am having a hard time accepting that
But it's still you, Stephanie Sorreda

I don't know what to say anymore
Because I am nervous you will laugh at me
I am in love with you again
I deserve another chance
I hope your heart feels the same way mine does

A bond in the universe is keeping us together
Alive and in love
A year separation for me was not enough to forget you
I was silly to think I would in the first place
I don't know what to tell you to show you how much I will always love you

But we are only 19 years old
And the future has many things for you and me
If this future leads to something meant for us

Then obviously time will tell
But I know that my heart was meant for you
Because it beats whenever it hears your name

I hope you are doing well, wherever you are Please remember that you are still my hope for being alive
Look up at the stars and know that one is for us
I will always love you, forever!!!
