I made you and your hate to socialize in a matter that suits me fine

So while I breathe in you punched my teeth in I tried to explain it but you just
You just don't see

I, I see right through you

So you do things, mainly bad things
Is it to satisfy your own neurotic needs?
I got this feeling, now I'm just dreaming
But just make sure I'm awake when you punish me

Now come follow me, walk to that place where we both see

What happened to you?
Why didn't you see if it's all true?
Confide in me

I was blind but now I, I see right through all that you do
But though I see you I know you're not here with me
And still I try to explain to you
How your presence is affecting my state of mind

Oh suck me in, inside myself
I want to fucking taste myself
It drags me down, your dismal past
And all you want is to make that last

Oh suck me in, inside myself
I want to fucking taste myself
It drags me down, your dismal past
And all you want is to make that last

Oh suck me in, inside myself
I want to fucking taste myself
It drags me down, your dismal past
And all you want is to make that last [Incomprehensible]

Don't want this, it's true what they say
Ignorance is bliss, find another way

In my mind it's all good now

Don't do things that's abnormal
They'll take me and put me away
Listen to me when I tell you I'm not insane

I see right through you
I see right through you
