(intro)

I have this key that will open the gate of fear.
No-one has ever had the guts to go there.
I open the gate and I cross to this other land.
I have heard of stories that there will be diamonds.

CHORUS:

Nothing can stop me now,
When I fight all the dragons.
That will stand in the way.

I see bright light from a cave that's in front of me.
I walk inside and I see diamonds everywhere.
What is that noise I can hear right behind of me?
I turn around and I see this huge dragon.

CHORUS

(guitar solo)

He tried to burn me with flames arching from his nose.
I have this armor that protects me from fire.
Cut out his stomach, out came his sherry-stone.
Now I am tired and I will go home.

CHORUS

(outro)
