"Rendered In Vain"

Visit "Rendered In Vain" on MotoLyrics.com

VENGEANCE!

Burn it in my eyes

FREE ME!

So I can rise again

To bring death to your soul

And strike you down, rip the skin off your bone

Once killed by your lies

When I rise from below

Then you will be the first one to know

And when it's my turn

I will make you burn

BLEEDING!

I need my sacrifice

CRAVING!

Cos I need it now

To come and take you down

And bring an end to to your existence

I will kill, purify

Your death is what I need to justify

But I've gotta to realize

That I was just rendered in vain

A slave to the fate of creation

And I've gotta pay with life

And pass on to the other side

I can't escape my ultimate destruction
