I'm cracking up I need a pill
I'm cracking up I need a pill

I'm cracking up I need a pill
I'm cracking up I need a pill
I'm cracking up I need a pill
I'm cracking up I need a pill

I sometimes starve myself of sleep
It's my paranoid mind
Strange looking demons laugh at me
All my traumas start to infiltrate my mind

I find it very hard to breath
In my hypochondrial world
Always poke the fun out of me
So confused with his sexuality

We've got information
Government sweat intrepidation
Stigmatise us all
Concealed information
Police crimes on Blacks and Asians
Babylon's alone

I'm cracking up I need a pill
I'm cracking up I need a pill

The animals are fast asleep
Always check if they can breath
Strange looking people laugh at me
All their traumas start to infiltrate my mind

We've got information
Government sweat intrepidation
Stigmatise us all
Concealed information
Police crimes on Blacks and Asians
Babylon's alone

People want an easy live
People want, hmmm

People want, hmmm, hmmm
