Everytime I breath I think of
Everytime I sleep I
Fashion dies with no respect
I never want to be like you
My poison colours never clash
With my shiny, shiny shoes
oh!

Who will buy my old chanel's,
Who will buy my fake furs,
I can't live without my slacks.
On the catwalk it's a gas
oh!

Your bright colours they cloud my vision,
Designer shirts they call this fashion,
Insane robots parade in tandem.
Don't make me sick, let me see you.

Paris green, paris green

Smile and say will you buy this,
It's a world exclusive.
To me the colours are the same
And it's driving me insane.
Oh!

Who will buy my old chanel's,
Who will buy my fake furs,
I can't live without my slacks.
On the catwalk it's a gas.
Oh!

You're bright colours they cloud my vision,
Designer shirts they call this fashion,
Insane robots parade in tandem.
Don't make me sick, let me see you

Paris green, Paris green,
Paris green, Paris green
