[HAVOC TALKING]

Lets do it dunn...My man...That's why I keep my mouth tight.

Ain't got no worries for y'all niggaz man...y'all niggaz is crazy

[PRODIGY]

Hey yo, its hell on earth down here the pavement scorching

Its more on roc when the Mobb walks in shit gets hot like a ill pot of grits spilled on you

Spit fire with nines but never squealed on you

I understood you should try to take my life

If I was you I would too damn right

If I had drama with a nigga like such as myself

I couldn't even sleep at night until...

I made things right

Pull out guns exchange a fight

Be the first to let off mines ignite the pipes...

and never let the daylight decieve

during the suns' hours niggaz do bleed

Aim for the waist and something on the top gets shot

Niggaz can't shoot never made a thing drop

Keep cream of the crop

fresh out of box shit filled to the top

Smell the barrell when its bolt-locked nigga

Hook1 [PRODIGY]

Have you ever lost a loved one?

Or never understood love 'til you lost one?

Where your heart at?

I left mines behind with my dearly departed

Where your heart at? Strength missing

To take losses is the hardest

The ones that overcome be the calmest

Strive regardless. Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.

Now lets find out where niggaz hearts' at

[HAVOC]

This is to my physical you gone...to me you still here

I be buggin thinking how you doin' up there

Probably watching over me calling out my fouls

Fuck with mad chicks but I take care of my child

I miss that ass tell God I said pardon me

If Your real; He'll forgive me [no doubt]

But I ain't crying no more about how you're gone Used to hold me down niggaz front its on Ain't wetting going to jail you better shoot me
Just lost my heart-If I die you comin' wit' me quickly while I'm pissy they're just bitches thats' a little to frisky
risky on point hope these cats is getting the point whisper out my name
Stand but please don't point call me paranoid
But I'm on point close by the stash joint Got you in my mind

I guess thats why the say love is blind

Hook 2 [PRODIGY]

Strength missing we take losses. be the hardest
The ones that overcome be the calmest. Strive regardless

Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.

You better finish what you started [dunn]

If you ever lost a loved one?

You'll never understand love 'til you lost one.

Where your heart at?

I left mines behind with my dearly departed

Where your heart at? Strength missing

To take losses be the hardest

The ones that overcome be the calmest

Strive regardless. Where your heart at? Brave-hearted.

Now lets find out where niggaz hearts' at

Have you ever lost a loved one?

You'll never understand love 'til you lost one.

Where your heart at?

I left mines' behind wit' my dearly departed

Now where your heart at?

[PRODIGY]

I find myself dozing off with it [guns]

waking up every forty minutes [dun]

Soaking wet dripped to death in it

On top of rules big barells and tools get tested

And hittin off makes my dick get erected

We all strive for a better tommorow

But as far as today your ass gotsa' pay

And ain't no time better than the present one at hand

And never keep your shit too far from your hand

[HAVOC]

Think about this are you with your hands on who you running with

Some timers, Playa' hata's and dick riders

Bent niggaz' that be crashin into dividers

Gettin you into shit got that ass tied up

Got them la'd up got you comin out of your vault

With no plans of giving back live in serious debt.

Your lady fucking other niggaz you a fool for her

Talking 'bout you got money you just using her Actually loosin' her...
