Layin low, the danger's died
The phone rings just around the stroke of midnight
Get ready turn off the light,
Get your gear on now we're going out tonight
A full moon rises when I step outside,
A deadly wind is running down my spine
When the car pulls over, I don't think twice
I hop on in and then I shut my eyes

I'm coming all the way out to you, I'm coming on

I feel gravity holding me,
When you, kick me down and wire,
I feel gravity holding me
When you kick me down, wired to the ground
I feel you, holding tight

We play it cool as we troll downtown,
We're not too sure of what we're aiming for
I kiss the cross chain around my neck,
I shake a leg and light a cigarette
Here it comes, walking up the block,
Wait until it's almost in the dark
When you pull the trigger, don't think twice,
Alright let's go, we haven't got all night

I'm coming all the way out to you, I'm coming on

I feel gravity holding me,
When you, kick me down and wire,
I feel gravity holding me
When you kick me down, wired to the ground
I feel you, holding tight
Still in the neighbourhood, it's a quarter to four,
We get back and drive by the scene of the crime,
Flashing lights, everybody's on site,
Sooner then later, it's payback time!

I feel gravity holding me,
When you, kick me down and wire
I feel gravity holding me,
When you kick me down, wired to the ground

I feel you, holding tight

Mmmmm we haven't got all night

OooOooOoo

Mmmmm we haven't got all night

When you kick me down, wired to the ground

OooOooOoo

I feel you holding tight

Mmmmm we haven't got all night

Kick me down, kick me down, kick me down,

Kick me down

OooOooOoo

I feel you holding tight

Mmmmm we haven't got all night

Kick me down, kick me down, kick me down,

Kick me down
