Love lies in ruin
Love lies in ruin
Love lies in ruin
Love lies in ruin
Leave if you want
If you can decide
Leave if you believe in paradise
And stay if you must
If you'll trust my highs
Stay, never leave, never go
My love lies in ruin
And better still my heart has ceased to care for anyone
You want to seize her
Then tell her that you love her so
Testify to all that i have ever felt for this girl
So walk on the wing
On the faith of desire
Walk thru this place
As if your own
And leave as a friend
As a will that won't bend
Leave as you would again
Thru all the seasons
That i lived, i know i'm exiled
I testify to all that i had ever felt
As a child
My love lies in ruin
My love lies in ruin
To all i denied
I resist and i cursed
To all let me say
Thank you so
For love is my way
Is the path i choose
For love ever young may i feel
My love lies in ruin
My love lies in ruin
My love lies in ruin
My love lies in ruin
