My life in the morning sun
My life in the speeding car
Too much to lose

My life in the empty vase
My life in electric war
Too much to lose
Too much to lose, my life to you

Hear the way that the world keeps calling
My life to you
Just show the way and I'll keep it coming
Too much to lose
Too much to lose
My life to you

My life in the messy room
My life in a greasy girl
Too much to lose

My life in the noble cause
My life in the war machine
Too much to lose
Too much to lose
Too much to lose
My life to you

In a way that the world keeps calling
My life to you
Just show the way and I'll keep it coming
Too much to lose
Too much to lose
Too much to lose
My life to you

'Cause my time and my love stand for always
And our time and our love stand for always

Any way that you want it now
Just say the word you can have it now
My life to you
My life to you

My life to you

My life to you
My life to you

Any way that you want it now
Just say the words you can have it now
Any way that you want it now
Just say the words you can have it now
Any way that you want it now
Just show the world that you want it now
Anyway that you want it now
Just show the world you can have it now

My life to you
My life to you
My life to you
My life to you
