You wanted to see me, to know me
To follow through
Remember
I need you to love me, to hate me
To follow you
Always, it's you i choose
And i may never be
The ashes in your dream
But still i'm gonna be
Walking from the shadows to my love
Walking from the shadows to my love
And i may never be
The reason you believe
Walking from the shadows to my love
So know this, i promised
I've waited to let you through
Remember, it's not too soon
Still watching, still dreaming
Oh baby what more can i do
To wonder, to be so cruel
And i may never be
The ashes in your dream
But i'm still gonna be
Walking from the shadows to my love
Walking from the shadows to my love
Hear my wills
Of all that you forgot
Our children grow
Bury what you've lost
To want you to know me
To know to follow through for you
I need you to love me too
Walking from the shadows to my love
Walking from the shadows to my love
I may never be
The reason you believe
Walking from the shadows to my love
I want you to know me
To need me to follow you
Remember
