Does your momma know where you go at night
Does your momma know where you go at night
Meet me in the alleyway, hop into my suicide
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
North side, south side, west side, pick a side
North side, south side, west side, pick a side
We're cruising down western avenue at midnight
The shops are closed, the doors are locked tight
Coming down slow, riding on that center line
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
I'll let them sleep
Just pull me inside
I'll let them sleep
Just give me a ride
I've got the keys, we're going to walk the midway
I've got the keys, we're going to walk the midway
I swear it's safe, you don't have to run away
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
We're going to riverview tonight, baby
