swimming around
two fish in a barrel
no one there to pull me out they leave me to die
how could they know
whoever could know me
tied to your tales of woe my tale to your stone two angels hanging out upon the ceiling watching all the stories we must tell of solace and serenity

solace and serenity
a silence so sad

the water drains out
the oxygen is killing me and all things i ever loved lost a drop at a time
the lazy days drown
drift into a perfect sleep baking in that mean old sun i wish i could dance

to solace and serenity
i just wanna dance

this might make you laugh i don't mean to amuse you but i just have a simple view of where it went wrong

i just wanna dance
