"Spilled Milk"

Visit "Spilled Milk" on MotoLyrics.com come on kid, can't you see where i go is never free of charge reckless honey on my paw the kids are close to coming in the jars come on in the water's warm sink to the bottom and watch the coming storm now we jack off now you suck in now you watch me and everyone wins reckless darling don't you know that what i want is to spill my milk wherever i go I'm not bad, I'm so good I'll fuck you raw, just like a good choirboy should I'm not kidding, watch and see I'll sink to the bottom and let you pee on me now we fuck off as we jack in and what's the cost here's a million bucks

million dollar baby selfishness in mind don't you know there's one thing to save me from your lust I'm watching out the backdoor I'm creeping thru your skull
million dollar baby
it's everywhere you go

there's a saying, [?]
there's a saying, [?] rocks to throw there's a saying, [?]
there's a saying, everywhere you go the leaves are turning brown from all the shit that you turn down ride down the gates of hell open now wait to sell the bombs

[?] and don't you know how the pretty one slipped everyone died

wiping out the sun to block the crimes of light against their nights wiping out the sun forsaken crimes of light against their nights wiping out the sun to walk
