Let your body sing
Let your body sing
Let your body sing of love
Let the new day bring
Let the new day bring
Let the new day bring with love
And all that's not enough for us
To stay warm
To stay warm
To stay warm
Don't say it's all but over
Don't say they've pinned your shoulders down
I've been laughing hard from coming right around
And everything is as we always planned
A world of hurt that couldn't stop our dance
May the time of light and loving take a chance
The small things that you need
One could not run
Let your body sing
Let your body sing
Let your body sing
Let your children dream
Let your children dream
Their words come apart in my hands with love
And all that's enough for us
To stay warm
To stay warm
To stay warm
My day will come
My day will come around
My day will come
My day will come around
My day will come
My day will come
My day will come
My day will come
With a turn around to be warm
My day will come
My day will come around
My day will come
With a turn around
As i turn around to be warm
