I cannot leave it all behind
I have to find the reason why
But no one's there to give an answer

Same old story in a different place
Another mass without a face
Call them axis of the evil

Warchild
You missed the sun
You failed to run along the last mile
How can we ease your pain?
Warchild
The air you breathe
The help you need was on the wrong side
There ain't no sheltered way

What they've done in '68
Has returned in different ways
The alliance of the willing

Did we lose ourselves in time?
Did we learn from past day crimes?
Is this really what were looking for?

Warchild
You missed the sun
You failed to run along the last mile
How can we ease your pain?
Warchild
The air you breathe
The help you need was on the wrong side
There ain't no sheltered way

This is the place to clean the poisoned ground
We need some time to leave the past

Can you leave it all behind?
Do you learn from past day crimes?
Is there time to give an answer?

What they've done in '68
Has returned in different ways
The alliance of the willing

Warchild
You missed the sun
You failed to run along the last mile
How can we ease your pain?
Warchild
The air you breathe
The help you need was on the wrong side
There ain't no sheltered way
