"October Skies"

Oh yea ya know it's true it started out with you at first we couldn't show eachother what we know All these things we see so special, they could be

(Chorus)

So paint your signs up on my walls walking lonely down your halls dim lights fade
but things will be just fine 'cause the sun sets in your eyes underneath these October skies

Lonely stares up at the moon and you know what's killing me your lips, your eyes oh yea I need you soon

(Chorus)

Waiting for this to be while I make this one a memory as I push down the gas and I'm goin' real fast it all fades away
to you and me (5x)
