Just outside of Austin, I turned on my radio Turned it in to a satellite station, she was talkin' on a call-in show
She said it was over, she'd made her choice
Her mind was made-up by the sound of her voice

Clear across America tonight, clear coast-to-coast
tonight
She's long gone, she's outta here but she's comin' through
Loud and clear, clear across America tonight

Sounded like he really had it coming, all the times He'd done her wrong, she said, "I hope he's listening"
And hung-up the telephone, all of a sudden I realized
It was me she was telling goodbye

Clear across America tonight, clear coast-to-coast
tonight
She's long gone, she's outta here but she's comin'
through
Loud and clear, clear across America tonight

Hello DJ, put me on the air Give me the chance to tell her I still care Get her back on the line, tell her I'm still in love
Said, "Sorry son, but you're breaking up"

Clear across America tonight, clear coast-to-coast
tonight
She's long gone, she's outta here but she's comin'
through
Loud and clear, across America tonight
Across America tonight, clear across America tonight Clear across America tonight, clear across America
tonight
