Must have been the luckiest man in the world
Never known why I left her
There's nothing like the love of a small town girl
But I thought I found something better
So I hit the big city
Coast to coast
And I must admit I had a good time
But now I've been around
And I'd like to settle down
But only with the one that I left behind

And it's all coming back to me now
It's all coming back to me now
It's all coming back to me now

You know I never was much for keeping in touch
I never wrote and never heard from her
I'd love to talk to her and try to make up
And solve all the pain I caused her
I realized now
I'm down on my luck
She is what
I never found
Now I'm back in town
She's not around
And I'm dealing with a heartache of the very worst kind

And it's all coming back to me now
It's all coming back to me now

I wonder now if this is how she must have heard
I don't know what I did
I'm getting what I deserved
Cause it's all coming back to me now

Now I'm back in town
She's not around
And I'm dealing with a heartache of the very worst kind

And it's all coming back to me now
It's all coming back to me now
