I've been lucky, got to travel this great land
From the mountains of Montana to the Sarasota sands
Oh, what a life living my dreams
I can say these eyes have seen so many things
The moon over Miami, sunset in Frisco bay
It's all been so beautiful but still I have to say

Nothing comes close to the beauty of your love
Nothing comes close, your sight I can't describe
Nothing comes close, when you're lying by my side
Nothing comes close, oh no
Baby, I've been there nothing comes close

I could search forever and never stop
Walk every valley and climb each mountain top
Sell every ocean to the end of my days
But when it was over, I'd still believe I'd say

Nothing comes close to the beauty of your love
Nothing come close, your sight I can't describe
Nothing comes close, when you're lying by my side
Nothing comes close

Nothing comes close to the beauty of your love
Nothing come close, your sight I can't describe
Nothing comes close, when you're lying by my side
Nothing comes close

Oh, no, baby, I've been there and nothing comes close
Nothing comes close
