You've got your secrets, girl I've got mine
We're fallin' apart one glance at a time
Night after night, actin' like strangers

Out of emotion, nothing to say
I brush your shoulder but you turn away
Nobody tries, nobody is changin'

Who'll be the first to say it's really the end?
Who's gonna walk out the door?
How did we let it get so out of control?
Our hearts can't take anymore

Then we remember how much we love each other
Pick the pieces up for one more try
Then we remember how much we need each other
Do we really wanna say goodbye?

One night of passion won't stop the pain
Back to the same old feelin' again
Time after time, is it worth savin'?

Who'll be the first to say it's really the end?
Who's gonna walk out the door?
How did we let it get so out of control?
Our hearts can't take anymore

Then we remember how much we love each other
Pick the pieces up for one more try
Then we remember how much we need each other
Do we really wanna say goodbye?

Then we remember how much we love each other
Pick the pieces up for one more try
Then we remember how much we need each other
Do we really wanna say goodbye?

Then we remember how much we love each other
Pick the pieces up for one more try
Then we remember how much we need each other
Do we really wanna say goodbye?

Then we remember how much we love each other
Pick the pieces up for one more try
Then we remember how much we need each other
Do we really wanna say goodbye?

Then we remember how much we love each other
