"Die A Death"

Breath held in and eyes bulged out I implode
as you scream and shout You called them lies none were told
The rage burns on shreds my soul

I die a death
I die a death
I die a death
each day
I die a death
I die a death Hell will have it's way

The pain I feel won't be contained A lover's lies are a battle's wage Truth is lost in a cloud of meth
The rage burns on
a lover's death

REPEAT CHORUS

Sorrow drowns
I melt away Untold truths
I always pay It never was what it could be You loved a lie
it wasn't me
