Adam is a refugee
he had to leave his home country his mother is left of his family now he's going to school to learn to read and write he doesn't speak their language he don't look like them that's the only reason why his classmates never play with him c'mon c'mon

it is just a shame
and it happens everywhere I don't think it's fair tell me who's to blame
that it happens every day say, do you think it's fair don't you feel the same

but his mother and he soon settled down she's got a job as a charwoman everything is fine, fine, fine

Adam speaks their language now his classmates let him play with them then one day a letter arrives he's about to be deported
