I know, you know
we know, they know this world is a cruel place but you make it even crueller I know (I know), you know (you know) we know (we know), they know (they know) you do not belong to the most popular you do the robot

hang on, mate
just wait a sec
you look so fuckin' weak with no support in your back you're only strong when you've got your gang with you beating up some innocent say, how cool are you

and what if they jumped from a bridge just tell me what would you do then would you jump

dance for me, scream for me, kill for me I've put some coins in your slut

you look so fucking nuts even with your support if you had some brain material could you have your own opinion it'd be good to have one you could walk with your own legs we are fighters, too!
with another sort of sword so, what do we do, what do we do? we'll just write down a song about you
