well, if you go mad
I don't mind
'cause I'm mad, too, you know every day I wake up I feel like a real Super Mario and it's true, you - I mean you you've got those symptoms, too you've got 'em deep inside you they'll no longer stay

I can see it in your eyes you want to freak out all you fail to show
is the ability to let go I've got experience
let me help you with this

I go yeah, yeah, yeah
and you go yeah, yeah, yeah

so, you go mad
but do I mind?
no, I don't think so
'cause every day I wake up I feel like a genuine super hero it's like a beast
that cannot rest
and it's burned into my chest can't be named, can't be tamed especially when when I've got the blues shake your head

shake your hips
just shake everything you've got shake your ears
shake your lips
more than just a lot
