Iâ€™m reminded by retrospectives in black and white back in the days we used to spend day and night
till you said â€™no, no longer, no longer will I be here with youâ€™ but here you are again, what could I say?

It ainâ€™t time to say goodbye baby, stay with me for a while we will forget about the time but it ainâ€™t time time to say goodbye what has remained of our sweet loving hours are the fag ends still bearing your scent and DNA

but you said â€™no, no longer,
no longer will I be here with youâ€™
but now youâ€™re standing here what should I say?
