Standing in line

To see the wicked witch
Make me a sandwich
Satan's granny's emerged from hell
You can tell by her smell

Wicked witch

But I've done nothing
Nothing, oh, nothing
Not more than nothing at all

Standing in line

To see those four neat boys
Take a bath in a cauldron
In a crowded basement
The soup is cooking
Set the tables
The meal's good-looking

Wicked Witch

But I've done nothing
Nothing, oh, nothing
Not more than nothing at all
