"You Make My Skeletons Dance"

You make my skeletons dance, You make my skeletons dance

You can make my skeletons dance, into the light

When I tell what I have done, all the things that I have done

I can know that I have done, all of the things that You
told me

If I say that I am done, with those things that I have done

I will wait for You to come, and lift me to my feet...

But when I keep silent, my bones waste away

Through my groanings all day

And when I shut down, my strength goes away

Till I can come openly, then...

When I tell what I have done, all the things that I have done

I can know that I have done, all of the things that You
told me

And if the time should ever come, again I do what I have done

I will do what I have done, and lay it at Your feet again...

I know that there's these times in our lives when, we must make a choice

When those times come, I know what I'll say, I'll say

"I am Yours! I'm all Yours!"
