Just a boy and a girl with a promise we'd always be true
We grew up all too soon and discovered how little we knew
Would the dream leave the ground? Was the future so sound?

You and I, we had a dream to fly
Wonderful dream, beautiful dream, don't let it die
You and I, we had a dream to fly
Wonderful dream, beautiful dream, don't let it die

Then one day, you were gone, and my dreams all came tumbling down
Childhood tears, broken years, our true love can no longer be found
Though I'd waited so long, still the dream lingers on

You and I, we had a dream to fly
Wonderful dream, beautiful dream, don't let it die
You and I, we had a dream to fly
Wonderful dream, beautiful dream, don't let it die

You and I, we had a dream to fly
Wonderful dream, beautiful dream, don't let it die
Oh Lord, don't let it die
