You were against my better judgement
I knew there was something off
But it looked so good on paper
I didn't listen to my friends
I think you'd rather cuddle with your buddies
Than spend any time with me
I thought you would be great
You turned out to be lame
Just more time wasted

I don't think I'll ever get over
Not you, but the fact that I didn't see it
Why would you want me
You're so in love with you
Everything I say,
Do you think is in reference to you?
Well put this on your PGL
Cause this time it's true
I guess you already know
This song is about you

You couldn't even satisfy a pillow
But I would never know
It was way too impossible
And now I know I am ready for this
Should've taken a hint
When I was told by your friends that I could do better

I don't think I'll ever get over
Not you, but the fact that I didn't see it
Why would you want me
You're so in love with you
Everything I say,
Do you think it's in reference to you?
Well put this on your PGL
Cause this time it's true
I guess you already know
This song is about you

He's 24 years old
And his people know
He calls his guy friends babe

And the lord only knows
What's going through his head
When he's going to bed
And he's all wrapped up in himself

I don't think I'll ever get over
Not you, but the fact that I didn't see it
Why would you want me
You're so in love with you, yeah
Everything I say,
Do you think it's in reference to you?
Well put this on your PGL
Cause this time it's true
I guess you already know
This time it's true

I don't think I'll ever get over
Not you, but the fact that I didn't see it
Why would you want me
You're so in love with you
Everything I say,
Do you think it's in reference to you?
Well put this on your PGL
Cause this time it's true
I guess you already know
This song is about you

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
