I have my reasons to despise for everything
I have no weapons to chose sides
I have my treasons to lie for what it bring
I have devotions cast and feel

Oh my oasis is away from everything
I let emotions cast away
Oh my reasons just hanging by a string
I've been dreaming
But believe in everything
I believe it starts tonight

I have my reasons you're a saint
I have a notion cast in fate
You have a treason to explain
I have devotions cast in fear

Oh my oasis is away from everything
I let emotions cast away
Oh my reasons just hanging by a string
I've been dreaming
But believe in everything
I believe it starts tonight

My ashes been burned
I've been waiting
I've been waiting too long
My ashes been fallen
I've been waiting
I've been waiting too long

You have no reason to explain
I have a notion cast away
