"Wanna Be Sure"

I keep coming back
To you everytime
Washing the walls of the room that you slept
And the place that you hide

I wanna be sure
That your hearts on fire
And your gonna be pure
And that your love is all mine
I wanna be sure

If I lose my grip
If I hold on to tight
Will you keep me from drifting away swept up in the tide

I wanna be sure
That your hearts on fire
And your gonna be pure
And that your love is all mine
I wanna be sure
I wanna be sure

Yeah i wanna be sure
That your hearts on fire
And that your gonna be pure
And that your love is all mine
I wanna be sure

That your hearts on fire
And that your gonna be pure
And that your love is all mine
And that your love is all mine
