Living Water quench my weary soul
Loving Father let Your river flow
Perfect Savior, Lamb of Glory
Here i bow down- most unholy
Your hand touched me now i live- forever
Day by day i long to see Your face
I dream of angels the warmth of Your embrace
I fall deeper- You rise above me
I weep harder- You say You love me
You reached down and touched me now i live
I will ever trust Your ways with the faith of a child
I will always follow You with the faith of a child
I am longing for the day that my eyes behold the Son
I will run into Your arms want to hear You say "Well done"
