Slayes
of their own prejudice, just full of Hate
and always judging, remaking Truth poor fallen angels, behind the Cross
you fuckin losers, stay away from me Achild in the dark damnation Kingdom of terror damnation Pleasure to kill damnation Pray for your sins damnation
Open up your eyes Open up your ears
Take a look around Cause the time is near Skin is all they see Nationality
In the name of God Sacrifice your race.
Violence is all what you see Decadence is all you will feel End of time, the end of belief Agony and pain to be free.
Who the hell you think you are everlasting master of humanity I'm not guilty for your problems for your fear and for your life Don't have reason for your sickness your the one who knows damns well Now bad feeling are aproaching gettin' worse can't you tell.
