Baby you said you have got to move on
Maybe we just can't get along
It takes a long spoon supping with the devil
Now save me baby from my suffer song
Baby baby baby we've got to kick it along
My life as a cue ball banging between these two sins Baby, yeah, cemetery, sane with slavery said you've got to move on

You caught me weeping down where I don't want to go You caught me creeping around like I don't want to know
Baby I've got to move on
I know I'm lazy but the winter is long Woman I love you but I've got to move on My strings are pulled by a mad moon blowing us around here

Baby yeah and the winter is long
You caught me weeping down like I don't want to know
You caught me weeping down where I don't want to go

You've been running uptown baby for too long
You've been kicking around singing our crazy song
You've been trouble my baby too long, long
You'll be coming back downtown baby for long
Never went no deeper than a crazy song
You'll be running back soon baby you've been running for too long

It would seem that Satan's thirst for blood has not been Satisfied even by the devastating memory of the Hiroshima
Explosion but we all know the Prince of the air, the King
Rat the Father of lies is working every day
I'm going to take you higher, higher
All along that gold coast peep show
I see people they get it on

You caught me weeping down where I don't want to go
You caught me weeping down like I don't want to know
