Night is breaking, you never know what you're waiting for
Time is running, you can't feel the freedom yet Look around you, there's no truth in what they do Hell is calling, only you can save your soul Fear, slaves, sorrow behind you, break loose, out of the dark side, lost minds, rotten society, mankind, seeking it's rest now
Fire's burning, you want to touch without remorse
Free to see now, the expectec gate is open wide Pain sorrounds you, better move or fall inside Choice is waiting, grab your weapon and defeat Fear, slaves, sorrow behind you, break loose, out of the dark side, lost minds, rotten society, mankind, seeking
it's rest now
Push the desire away from your spirit an fight, struggle against Don't loose your senses and see what they have become,
Dead meat
Truth hurts
Truth hurts
Truth hurts
Truth hurts
Air is thick we cannot breath
Heavy storm's already here Somethin's watching in the dark
"Why" is always what you ask Feeling sick world is wrong Thought bad dreams were never real
Now we pray for a better day
Don't you feel the painful wound
