

Absence Of Concern "Ocean Of Angels"

Visit "Ocean Of Angels" on MotoLyrics.com

In this world we live
In this world we cry
Speak the words that leave no sound

From this place we crawl
So motionless
And I turn to you for innocence
(This time)
A tear can fill an ocean
(This time)
I will find my own way
(This time)
Nothing stands between us
An ocean of angels
It raises and lifts me away

Now these words they speak
Language unclear to me
With the answers I so desperately need
If this world could fall once

Give back to me
One second, one inch, make it worth the while

(This time)
A tear could fill and ocean
(This time)
I could find my own way
(This time)
Nothing stands between us
An ocean of angels
It raises and lifts me away

A stumble to a trip
A trip to a fall
And the blink of an eye it's all gone
I never ment for this to end this way
I am convinced you always did
