The sooner that I realize
These scars were never there
I could place the blame on you
And now that I'm alone
The silence makes me feel
You could have your way with me
And you know
You cried that I wasn't there
So tell me what you want me
Even though I know I need to Get away
I wanna make you see

[Chorus]

The better side of me
You turn away and never listen
Do you see

The better side of me
When all these words go right through you

How could I have known
By looking in your eyes
That there was something there for me
You would love to hide
Now everything is gone
So tell me what went wrong
I guess that we will never know

[Chorus]

Do you see the better side of me

[Chorus]

Now I can place the blame on you
