Old machinery's broken down
There's no new past, there's no new sound
What would you do if they crumbled to the ground
Wake up, you must be dreaming

Changes in our lives
We'll make it in the end
Machinery's broken in two
What are we to do?

Where were you when the day caved in
It seems the streets were the place to be Something quite disturbing filled the air
Wake up, you must be dreaming, what an uneasy
feeling

Machine fell down and smashed the ground
People cried for miles around
Well, that's what someone said
Wake up, you must be dreaming, a quite uneasy
feeling

Changes in our lives
We'll make it in the end
Machinery's broken in two
What are we to do?

Changes in our lives
We'll make it in the end
Machinery's broken in two
What are we to do?

What are we to do?
What are we to do?
What are we to do?
What are we to do?

Changes in our lives
We'll make it in the end
Machinery's broken in two
What are we to do?

When the day came by, I looked about
You were nowhere to be found

What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?
What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?

What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?
What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?

What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?
What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?

What are we to do?
(Wake up, you must be dreaming)
What are we to do?
