When someone close is always on your mind
A memory of a place, another day and time
Some would say you died and left your hearts behind
But it's with your heart you're searching all the time

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

The dreams we had were rather common line
And in their wake there came the fear you'd changed your mind
Spinning me, spinning me round, spinning me
Spinning me, spinning me, spinning me round

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

And if you lose your minds, never leave your hearts behind
To find yourself is worth the waiting, finding, then really living
Spinning me, spinning me round, spinning me
Spinning me, spinning me, spinning me round

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

I want you with me, I need you near me
I want so much from you anew

Spinning me, spinning me round
Spinning me, spinning me round
Spinning me, spinning me round
