

Modern English "Take Me Away"

You're a mine of information
I'm your whore of paradise
You're the train that's late at the station
I'm breathing fire and ice

You keep me from falling over
You keep me from going under
It was cold on that morning
When my knowledge came to stay

Take me away
Somewhere far away
Take me away

Now the door stands open
Paints me a different color today
I'm blind and you see
Your wisdom's killing me, believe me

Take me away
Somewhere far away
Take me away

Your wisdom is killing me

Take me away
Somewhere far away
Take me away

Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
